MOST ADVANCED TELEMEDICINE RESELLER PLATFORM IN THE INDUSTRY

Telemedicine Market to reach $36 Billion by 2020

Growth Spurred by High Personal Healthcare Demand

The MyTelemedicine Partner Program was created in the best interest of our Partners. It was developed with the help of industry professionals who have had extensive experience both in the healthcare benefit industry and as agents to other companies. It is a ready-to-go program, that you can start selling immediately with no down time or personal investment.

Our partners earn monthly residual commissions for their entire customer base and for the life of the account. This program offers unlimited income capabilities by promoting MyTelemedicine to consumers and businesses. In addition, if you have business partners that are interested in joining this program, you can now refer them and get compensated for what they sell as well.
